PRENDERGAST, the crank, still flourishes.

If anything on a dog's tail can make him dance, a tomato can.

MR. VAN ALLEN's campaign contribution paid a free gift, after all.

OVER 4,000,000 people in this country live on the wages paid by railroad companies.

THE great revenue fight is over sugar and whisky. Why not take them together.

SECRETARY LAMONT has solved the hair problem. He says the West Point boys must stop playing foot ball.

CONGRESS will make its usual bluff of not taking a holiday vacation and then will gravely proceed to take it.

GOVERNOR LEWELLIN's "framp order" will not cause much trouble. Tramps are not partial to zero weather.

AND the United States senate begins to talk. When the Nile is dammed with burrbrush one may begin to hope for an effective closure in that body.

If you contemplate dying, the proper thing to do just now is to give your property away beforehand. If you leave it by will there will be a heavy tax on it, you know.

IN THIS country, as in Europe, the grip is again working ravages. On local type is, happily, a light one, and with this cheery weather patient perseverance ought to check it.

IT was not the Democratic party that caused the deficiency in the United States treasury. It was handed to them by the out-going party. It well to remember this, at times.

REED, czar of Maine and audacious president, says he wants "the M. Kinley boom to go right along just as it is, because such a hot boom can live through more than one cold winter."

THE Wichita Eagle of yesterday truthfully says: Governor Renfrow has announced that he will not tolerate the Mitchell-Corbett fight in Oklahoma. This is right. Oklahoma would not tolerate it.

KANSAS CITY SENT: Governor Renfrow, the stalwart and popular chief of Oklahoma, has knocked all the gloss off the sports in one round. It says no prize fight can be held in Oklahoma. The governor makes haste to make his stand.

KICK A OUR.

The footings of a blizzard, ravine, drunken, repulsive car are never noticed by high minded men—men of refinement and principle. And a mougei whelp, figuring in the guise of a man, generally strikes his tail between his legs and yelps when kicked bodily from the society of decent men.

THE United States supreme court has rendered a decision the effect of which will be to transfer to the United States courts for trial all crimes hereafter committed on American vessels in Detroit river as well as on the lakes. In mentioning this the Detroit Free Press reminds all interested that while Michigan does not hang murderers, the United States gives the class an opportunity to swing.

THE SAME EVERYWHERE.

One day last week an infuriated mob broke into a court room, overpowered the officials, seized Frederick Gustavson, a white man, undergoing a hearing on the charge of criminality, and, perhaps, fatally assaulting a little girl, and lynched him, his body being swung to a rope from one of the windows of the court room. All this took place in the presence of the judge of the bench. Now where do you suppose this lawless event happened?

was not in the south, but in Ottumwa, in the Republican state of Iowa.

It makes little difference in what section revolting crimes against nature, of such a kind, occur, public sentiment swiftly resorts to mob and lynch law, fearing the slow and doubtful issue of the ordained course of justice. The fact that the perpetrator is a black instead of a white fiend is not likely to modify the relentless demand for speedy vengeance on the part of the public. Politics, section and color do not act as a stay against the lawless but certain fate of the Benish and marauding ravisher. These are facts that demagogic Republican newspapers too often affect to overlook in their railings against a particular section of our common country.

To Meet the Regents.

Governor Renfrow went down to Oklahoma City yesterday afternoon to meet with the regents of Oklahoma university at Norman. Regents Horace Smith and J. C. Pringle of Perry accompanied him.

A Big Damage Suit.

R. F. Kennedy, through his attorney, Charles F. Eagan, has commenced suit in the district court of Oklahoma county against W. H. Bennett of Kingfisher county, to recover $12,000 damages and $500 claimed to have been wrongfully taken from him.

Grand Jury at Perry.

The United States grand jury convened at Perry Monday next, when another batch of "horrible strip frauds" will probably be unearthed.

Returned From Their Honey-Moon.

Harry Hanley and bride arrived in Perry yesterday to make their home. Harry was married to Miss Bertha Wilhite at Crawfordville, Ind., on Thanksgiving day.

The Mojaves believe that all who die and are not cremated are turned into owls, and when they hear the dismal screech of one of the above named creatures of the night they tell you that it is the spirit of some dead Mojave who has returned to advise his people to submit to the ordeal of fire.

FROM GRAVE TO GAY.

Misses—Who rang the bell then, Katie? Katie—A boy, mum, looking for the wrong number.

"Always speak well of your neighbor." "I always do, although I can assure you she is the meanest woman in creation."

Lady, to mendicant soliciting aims—Come, let us both go to my husband; I, too, happen to want some money for housekeeping.

"Look here, now, when are you going to pay me the hundred marks I lent you a few weeks ago?" "How can I tell? Do you take me for a prophet?"

Maudie—Now, is everything in, dear, that we will need for lunch? "Let me see—bread, cake, pickles, lemons—oh, dear, no; there's our powder cloth and the comb left out."

Servant—Please, ma'am, there's a poor man at the door with wooden legs. Young Mistress—Well, what can we do with wooden legs? Tell him we don't want any.

Tanks—I guess Old Snak means that posterity shall not forget him. Banks—What has he left for it to remember him by? Tanks—A multiplicity of life size busts.

"The death of your husband was a great loss to you," said Mrs. Brantling to Mrs. Gasket, by way of condolence. "Oh, the loss was fully covered by insurance," replied the widow.

Doctor—How is the patient this morning? Nurse—Well, he has been wandering a good deal in his mind. Early this morning I heard him say, "What an old woman that doctor is," and I think that was about the last really rational remark he made.

Hanged Himself to a Matter. MARSHALL, Mo., Dec. 6.—John Clayton, aged about 35 years, a well-known farmer, committed suicide here by hanging himself to a raft in his barn near Fairville, a web halter being used to accomplish the desired end. The deceased it seems had been worrying considerable of late over some financial matters and his inability to dispose of his corn.

WILL PUSH THE MATTER.

BUXTON UNIVERSITY QUESTION IN THE COURTS.

Poorly Attended Meeting of the Board of Trade—Will We Have a Museum?—Attorney Speed Talks About Attorneys and Railroads.

Last evening was the time for the meeting of the Guthrie Board of Trade but only twelve members seemed to be aware of the fact. President Spengel and Secretary Marion were on hand, however, but they had little to do as the small attendance cast a damper over the business of the evening.

The Buxton university question was brought up again and discussed. It was the sense of the board that the matter be pressed through the courts.

In regard to the world's fair exhibits, no progress was reported, and nothing can be done until Secretary Smith is heard from in regard to the occupancy of the government acre.

Two car loads of exhibits have arrived from Chicago and are now on the tracks near the depot. For the present the museum matter is in statu quo.

Railroad subjects were discussed at random, but nothing new was brought out. Attorney Speed was present at the meeting and he was particularly anxious to have the R. & G. road built and sound county attorneys appointed. Just where the two subjects connect, depends on sayeth not.

President Spengel asked for "pointers" relative to reviving interest in the board. Several subjects were suggested as most likely to bring about the desired result, such as agitating the reduction of county taxes, roasting the county commissioners and lowering the city taxes.

One thing is certain, Guthrie's Board of trade will amount to little so long as the members studiously remain away.

Nois Jollities. The Noss family gave a creditable musical entertainment at the McKenney last evening.

Notice. The bazaar to be given by the Women's and St. Margaret's guild will be postponed until further notice on account of the death of Mr. A. E. Grissell. By order of Mrs. C. M. Barnes, President.

Pulled Their Freight. Clark & Son, the lottery fakirs, have left Oklahoma City and gone to El Reno. Since THE LEADER's expose the fakirs have been playing in hard luck. They are fakirs of the deepest dye.

DEMOCRAT MATTERS.

No Evasion, No Compromise.

The Democratic congress owes it to the people of the country to put aside all other business at the beginning of the regular session until the tariff bill has been framed and passed. The disastrous results of delay in repealing the Sherman law and the consequent expense in business depression which accompanied it should be a warning against a repetition of this mistake in the treatment of future legislation to which the Democratic party stands pledged.

There will be "compromisers" and "abstractionists" who will oppose prompt action and counsel delay. Many of these who doubtless be Democrats representing states which have recently recorded local victories to the Republican party, but their counsels should not and must not have weight.

There has been no reversal of the decision of the people since last November upon this question. The Democratic party was successful upon certain definite issues, and there is but one course left for it to pursue. There must be no compromise, no evasion. A blow has been struck at class protection by the repeal of the Sherman act, and this policy must be further attacked and overthrown by a radical revision of our tariff laws. The business, commerce and industries of the country must be thoroughly emancipated, and the work must be completed early in the year in order that the new year may be signified by the beginning of a new era of prosperity for this nation.

Business must not be kept in suspense. The work before the Democratic congress will require energy and courage. The Republican majority of that body, inspired by the recent local successes may be expected to oppose all progress and fight tariff revision to the bitter end. Every Democrat should, therefore, be at his post and be mindful of his principles and principles.

In this connection the fact must not be lost sight of that the rules of the United States senate are vicious, and, unless reformed at the out set, will be fatal to Democratic success. While Republican senators may not take the position of uncompromising opposition to the extent of preventing a vote upon the tariff bill, they can accomplish the defeat and discomfiture of the Democratic party by the same tactics which were employed in opposition to the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act.

They can prolong discussion and promote delay and keep the industries, commerce and business of the country in suspense until all chances of a successful business season in the coming year have been lost.

This will bring the Democratic party face to face with the fall elections in 1894, with the tariff bill freshly enrolled upon the statute books and with the business and commerce of the country unadjusted to the new conditions.

Such a result will be disastrous to party success at the next election, and the Democrats should take warning from the recent events and avoid a repetition of this mistake.

The tariff bill should be promptly passed giving business ample opportunity to readjust itself to the new conditions. If this be done the eve of elections of 1894 will find a prosperous country and leave the Republicans devoid of political capital upon which to base an argument and practically destroy the only issue upon which that party expects to return to power.

Let the Democratic congress work together harmoniously in support of the administration, to the end that the tariff bill may be promptly passed and the Democratic pledges be redeemed and Democratic principles be vindicated.—K. C. Times.
